BRINGING ART TO LIFE

Spring 2010

Dear Diary,

I went shopping today for the latest spring shoes...

I came home with nothing but Matisse and Coconuts Footwear. How could I resist the cute wedges and sandals that everyone will be talking about this season? Not only will my friends all be green with envy 😊 ... I will be putting my best foot forward... pun intended. Luckily for me, I did not break the bank, but that's my little secret...

Roosevelt

Pink, Green, Chocolate, Leopard, Black

Viper
Pewter, Bronze

Once I unloaded all my loot, I was able to relax by the pool in my cute new "Hollywood" wedges. I just love the stud detail. After a long day of shopping, I owed it to myself to get comfortable and relax before heading out to Malibu to meet my friends for dinner. Now if only deciding what to wear tonight was this easy...

McKee

Canyon

Beverly

With all these cute new sandals, how could I ever choose which pair to wear? Beading, sequins, crystals and studs! I've got it all now. Every pair is perfectly in-tune with the spring trends. I am so excited I may have to model my shoes for my friends before we go out.

Venice

Now that I have one outfit picked out, I will go for a test run in my garden. I love the way my new "Olympic" wedges look with my outfit. They are so versatile and comfortable; I'll never take them off... Well, at least not until dinner.

Olympic
Brown, Espresso

Gunsmoke

Silverlake

I couldn't forget to buy some spring boots while I was shopping. The super soft un-lined leather make my boots wearable everyday, even in the California heat. That reminds me, I have the perfect little sundress to wear with my new "Gunsmoke" boots...I cant wait 😊! Time to go, gotta finish getting ready and decide on which fabulous Matisse shoes to wear tonight.
